

DUXBURY BEACH

Duxbury Beach Preservation Society

Five years ago, the infamous No-Name storm of 1991 destroyed Duxbury Beach. Since then, many Duxbury residents and non-residents have worked hard to restore and preserve this wonderful beach. The restoration effort is an on-going commitment and will require financial support to continue. The Duxbury Beach Preservation Society was organized to help the Duxbury

Beach Reservation (DBR), a non-profit organization that owns the beach, to preserve the beach and to build a storm fund for future use. Duxbury Beach Preservation Society hopes to educate the community about who owns the beach, who runs the beach, who funds the beach and who protects the beach. We all do.

Several committees have been organized to support the Duxbury Beach Preservation Society: membership, publicity, hospitality, gift/donation, newsletter events and correspondence. Join this exciting cause. Your support can make a difference. If you are interested in helping out, call Anita Haffey at 934-2989.
